

Where is Christopher Pop-In-Kins

WHEN YOUR AN ELF do on wed

*All aboard for a trip that's magic.
All aboard for a trip that's fun.
We're all headed for a North Pole address.
All aboard for the Elf Express.*

That's what we're on. The Elf Express.

I just flew down here from the North Pole and boy are my arms tired.

Silly, you didn't fly, you came on the Elf Express just like the rest of us.

But this is no ordinary train, it's a magic train, and it chugs and it flies and ... and we're glad you're all here with us. And you can be elves in training with us. Like Bernard here.

I want to be an elf, too.

We love being elves.

*When you're an elf,
When you're an elf,
When you're an elf,
Life isn't easy like in story books.*

*You work hard,
And you keep up your guard
And you have to work hard (we said that already)
And no one regards you Seriously.*

*Cuz we're so darn cute.
Yes, cute is what an elf is.
So darn cute,
Knowing all about yourself is Not
So hot
When you're an elf.*

*When you're an elf,
When you're an elf,
When you're an elf,
You're one of Santa's helpers*

*Making toys.
We're who Santa employs.
Elves who love making toys,
And we take our jobs
Very seriously.*

*And it's so darn cold,
That's what the North Pole is.
So darn cold,
Down to your elfin soul.
It's not
So hot
At the North Pole
When you're an elf.*

---dance---

*But we love what we do
We love our boss who Say "ho ho ho" all the time.
So don't get us wrong.
The point of this song
Is to let you know
You better like snow
When you're an elf.
When you're an elf.
When you're an elf.*

Bernard/Bernice

Lolly
Wait a minute I thought I was his favorite elf.

Bernard/Bernice

No, no, no, I'm his favorite elf.

Holly

Nope, I am.

Lolly

I am

(Argument ensues)

Holly

(Big whistle) It doesn't matter we are Santa's favorite elves. But, I'm not sure if any of them really know us at all. We have never been properly introduced.

Bernice

Really?

Holly

I believe so.

Lolly

And besides, remember we are really good at hiding around corners.

Holly

Yeah you're right.

Bernice

You're right you're right you're right

Holly

We'll if that's the case, how about we properly introduce ourselves like Santa taught us.

Lolly

You don't mean.

Holly

Yes, I do

Holly/Lolly/ Bernice

Yes, with a song.

Bernice

I love songs

SANTA'S ELVES done

*There's Holly
We're Jolly,
There's Lolly
Good Golly
There is Bernice
And if we do say ourselves,
We're Santa's fav'rite elves.
With our smiles we make each day a HOLLY Day
We make laugh every day is a JOLLY day
We are smart and as sweet as a LOLLY pop
No we're not.
Yes we are.
Dolly stop.
I'm just saying.*

*There's Holly
We're Jolly,
There's Lolly
Good Golly
There is Bernice
That shouldn't be hard to do.
For as Santa's fav'- o - rite elves
We're seldom thinking of ourselves
We're working to make the merriest Christmas for you.*

*Up at the North Pole
Making toys is our goal.
We work hard, on the whole,
When kept under control.
When we get on a roll,
You can't stop us
From doing what we do.
Making toys
That bring joys
And the merriest Christmas for you.*

dance

*There's Holly
We're Jolly,
There's Lolly
Good Golly
There is Bernice That shouldn't be hard to do.
For as Santa's fav'- o - rite elves
We're seldom thinking of ourselves
We're working to make the merriest Christmas for you.*

(1:10)
Bernice
Wow, that was fun.

Lolly
Sure was whenever they laugh and clap, it makes me feel like I just drank hot cocoa. With marshmallows.

All Elves
MMMMMMMMMM!!!!!!!

Holly
I know, I know, but remember Santa Claus has sent us out on an important mission to find our friend and his number one elf Christopher Pop-in-kins.

Bernice
Jumpin candy canes, I forgot.

Lolly
Remember, he is supposed to start training us to help him out because there are so many good boys and girls in the world that need to visiting during Christmas time.

CHRISTOPHER Pop in Kins? done

*Christopher Pop-in-kins
Pops into homes
When the children are fast asleep.*

*Christopher Pop-in-kins
Stops in the homes
And he hides without making a peep.*

*When the children wake up,
They find him
Hiding high on a mantel or shelf.*

*Where he sees how the children are good,
Helping their moms and their dads as they should.*

*Christopher Pop-in-kins
Christopher Pop-in-kins
Santa's
Number one Favorite elf!*

Lolly

Yeah. See he's the Elf we all want to be like, and we have searched high and low for him, but nothing.

Holly

And don't forget. I heard a rumour around the toy shop that Santa may even come down from the North pole to see how we're doing.

Lolly

Santa's coming here?

Holly

Yup, Santa's coming here?

Bernard/Bernice

Santa's coming here? (Improv Excitement)

Holly

Oh this is such an important important mission, we just can't mess it up.

Lolly

But the world is too big for just us two to handle.

Bernard/Bernice

What about me?

Holly

What about you?

Bernard/Bernice

I can help too.

Lolly

That's right Bernard you can help.

Holly

We'll let's put our heads together and think.

(All three elves do the old vaudeville think bit.)

Lolly

I got it.

Holly

I got it.

Holly/Lolly

We got it.

Bernice

Got what?

(All Elves look at Bernice and say...)

An idea!!!!

Bernice

Ohhh, never had one of those before.

Holly

Holly

On the Elf Express.

(1:00)

Holly

I don't know about you all but I don't think we are going have any trouble finding Christopher Pop-in-Kins with all of you helping us.

Bernice

Yeah with all of you helping he shouldn't be too hard to find.

Lolly

You just have to make sure they look high and low...

Holly

...and all around.

Jolly

Yeah high and low...

(all elves)

...and all around.

High and Low Conga Line no music keep the same as last year

High and low and all around

High and low and all around

Ten feet high or on the ground.

High and low and all around.

(Can you help find Christopher Pop-in-kins?

Oh, where can he be.

Can you help find Christopher Pop-in-kins?

Come along with me.)

Lolly

Do you think you can do that everyone. (Indicate audience should respond)

Holly

What we can't hear you?

Lolly

Wow, they're loud. Hey, I been thinking maybe after they help us find Christopher Pop-in-kins, Santa Claus will let us bring them up to North pole to visit.

Holly

Maybe, they could even help us make some toys.

Bernice

I love making toys.

Holly

But Bernice, you don't make toys yet.

Bernice

I will one day.

(ALL Elves agree.)

Yes you will Bernice. I'm sure of it. Without a doubt.

Holly

Yeah, but wait a minute that means they need to know what we do.

Lolly

And how we do it.

Holly

Being an elf is not for the faint of heart.

Lolly

You have to courteous

Holly/Lolly

and kind...

Holly

...and work hard

Bernice

and uhm, uhm

All Elves

Come on Bernice you can do it. You know this.

Bernice

I got it. I got it. I got it. Do what Santa asks.

Lolly

You're right and I bet they already do that for their Mom and Dad. So it should be as easy for them as filling a stocking with toys.

Holly

Yeah, your right. Let's tell 'em what we do.

BEING GOOD SHOULD BE EASY- done

Follow the rules

When we make Santa's toys.

Work and have fun,

Just don't make too much noise.

When you're done

Pick up after yourself.

When work that's tough

Gets you down for a while,

*Nothing's so bad
You won't feel better to smile.
And an elf
Always asks,
"How can I help?"*

*Don't make it hard.
Being good should be easy.
As we all grow
We come to know
All the right things to do.*

*At the end of the day,
If you can say,
"I tried and I gave it my best."
Then it'll be easy
To pass Santa's test.*

*Have you been good,
And always polite?
Done what you should?
Been wrong less than right?*

*At the end of the day,
If you can say,
"I tried and I gave it my best."
You've been good as you should.
And you'll pass Santa's test.*

*Being good should be easy.
Being good should be best.*

(:45)

Lolly

So if they help us find Christopher Pop-in-kins and Santa lets them come up we still got a problem.

Holly

What problem?

Bernice

Yeah, what problem?

Holly

You don't mean?

Lolly
I sure do.

(All Elves)
Oh we forgot.

Lolly
We can't take them up by sleigh.

Bernice
You're right that's only for Santa and special elves.

Holly
Like Christopher Pop-in-kins.

Lolly
We can't sprinkle them with Elf dust.

Holly
We can't send them up the chimney.

Lolly
Well for Santa sake let's put our heads together and think.

(They put their heads together and hit them and react with an ouch. Then they go into a thinking bit where they think they have the answer three times. The first two times they don't the third time they all yell, "A-hah" and scare)

All Elves (except Bernice)

Holly
A-hah

Lolly
Eureka

Holly
I got it.

Lolly
I got it.

Holly/Lolly
We got it.

Bernard
Got what?

Lolly
We take them on the Elf Express.

Holly
That's a great idea.

Lolly
You bet. Excellent

Bernice
Yeah, the Elf Express
